

Job Title: .NET Developer

Reports to: Director of Development

Location: Toronto, Ontario

Type: Permanent, Full-Time

.NET Developer:

The CLIENT is an innovative cloud-based asset management solution for renewable energy projects. As an integral member of our development team, the .NET Developer is responsible for the design, development, implementation and support of code for the CLIENT's SaaS application. Working with cross-functional teams, you will participate in gathering and documenting functional specifications to meet business needs.

Responsibilities:

- Develop in ASP.NET/ C# for data integrations
- Generate server queries and backend database development in Microsoft SQL environment
- Work with product team to plan design and develop software solutions
- Develop server solutions to allow communication between various component of system
- Participate in meetings and contribute to R&D discussions with other team members

Required Qualifications:

- Minimum 3+ years of experience in Software development role for web-based applications
- Clear Understanding and solid knowledge on software development cycle and agile methodologies
- Well versed in SQL server, Entity Framework, and Database design
- Experience with visual studio and TFS experience or equivalent (e.g. Git)
- Strong understanding of software engineering practices, object-orientated design, design patterns, user interface design, database administration
- Clear and concise written and spoken communication
- Detail-oriented and excellent problem solving skills
- Experience with Agile and Scrum methodologies
- Strong sense of ownership, passion and dedication towards development
- Experience in web Technologies, HTML, XML, XPath, JavaScript

Please apply with resume to jobs@witsconsulting.ca